

TALLAHASSEE REPORT

The Florida Land Title Association's Newsletter.

This newsletter is designed to bring you information that has occurred within the association and industry in the previous month. We hope you will find this to be informative and keep you up to date.

REFLECTIONS of 2022

The end of the year is a time for reflection, and the is FLTA looking back on the events and experiences of the past year's accomplishments and challenges. It is also a time for making resolutions for the new year, setting goals and intentions for personal growth and improvement. As the calendar turns over and the new year dawns, there is a feeling of possibility and hope for the future.

CONVENTION

MEALS of HOPE

51,464 Meals for Hurricane Victims in Southeast Florida

Made possible by those who donate to the FLTA Charitable Action Foundation.

ADVOCATE

Lobby Days

The Annual FLTA Legislative Lobby Days is for association members to share industry stories and lobby industry issues with members of the Florida House of Representatives and the Florida Senate. The relationships formed during these days are important to the overall message of moving issues forward through the legislative process to support the land title profession for the protection of property rights and the integrity and security of real estate transactions.

CONNECT

FLTA Networking Events

Tampa, Orlando, Pensacola, Fort Myers, Jacksonville, and Doral

One way that the FLTA supports its members is by organizing networking events, which provide an opportunity for land title professionals to connect with one another, share ideas and best practices, and learn about new developments in the industry. By participating in FLTA networking events, land title professionals can expand their professional networks, enhance their knowledge and skills, and stay up-to-date on the latest trends and issues in the field.

EDUCATE

CE & CLE Credits

FLTA Convention, 7 CE and CLE, included 1 Ethics. FLTA Webinar Series 8 CE&CLE, included 1 Ethics. Cyber Security Road Show, 4 CE & CLE, included 1 Ethics.

The FLTA hosts a number of continuing education seminars throughout the year to assist our members in meeting their continuing education requirements and to maintain their high professional standards.

Thank you, Westcor Land Title Insurance Company, Alliant National Title Insurance Company, for giving us the opportunity to join your events. It's business like yours that gives the FLTA a chance to meet new people and grow our CommUnity.

Thank you!

You, our members, are what make the FLTA what it is today.

Without your membership and support we would not be able to offer all that we do.

To our committee members, thank you for answering the call. You make the FLTA run, grow and evolve. From online webinars, in-person seminars, to networking event's you have grown the FLTA, and we can't wait to see next year's endeavors.

Let's stay connected through all of our social networks including LinkedIn, Facebook Instagram, and Twitter.

Florida Land Title Association's mission is to support the land title profession for the protection of property rights and the integrity and security of real estate transactions.
