2023 Legislative Session Set To Begin Tuesday, March 7

Message from Agents' Section Lobbyist, David Daniel,
with Smith, Bryan & Myers

This year Regular Session is scheduled to begin on March 7 and conclude on May 5, 2023. Members bills are being filed daily with the pace increasing as bill filing deadline draws near. It is always difficult to pass a bill and given that two interim committee weeks were also used as special sessions for Governor DeSantis' priorities, the Legislature has not acted on many bills with many others apparently stuck in bill drafting. I would expect that many special interest priorities will be left to accomplish at a later date.

FLTA Lobby Days for the 2023 Legislative Session!

April 3-5, 2023
Tallahassee, Florida

Open to All FLTA Members

Including: Title Agents, Title Underwriters, and Industry Trade Partners (Associate Members).

The Annual FLTA Legislative Lobby Days is for association members to share industry stories and lobby for industry issues with members of the Florida House of Representatives and the Florida Senate. The relationships formed during these days are important to the overall message of moving issues forward through the legislative process to support the land title profession for the protection of property rights and the integrity and security of real estate transactions.

FLTA Legislative Lobby Days, where you may Advocate, Connect, and Educate.
